

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, JULY 11, 1799.

VIENNA, April 24.

Our funds have experienced a rise of four per cent. in consequence of our victories.—The English have made a descent in Calabria.—Two hundred thousand florins, which the French had exacted of the people of Ferrara, have fallen into our hands.

VERONA, April 17.

The Austrians took at Lago Sacro 200 pieces of cannon which the French had carried from the arsenal of Venice. The French lost 800 horses, 40 waggons, &c. at Giotto. The communication between Milan, Rome, and Naples is cut off.

April 18.

The peasants cut down the trees of liberty in every part of the Cisalpine republic, where the Imperial troops arrive and supply them with wine and provisions.—General Mercantini is dead of his wounds.

Our gazette contains the following article: We have received the official news, that the Austrians entered Brescia yesterday at noon. The Austrian flotilla disembarked troops yesterday at Sermonio, a mile to the north-west of Peschiera, which obliged the French flotilla to retire under the protection of that fortress.

April 19.

Head quarters were yesterday transferred to Monte Chiaro, a few miles from Brescia. The Imperial troops were received with great joy in that town, and the French and Cisalpine garrison retired into the castle.—General Kray has been ordered by general Suvarrow to begin the siege of Mantua, and the army has been directed to fall upon the enemy in every action with fixed bayonets. The Russians are not to give any quarter. The army began its march to-day, to give battle to the enemy, and, if we succeed in defeating him, we shall be masters of all Lombardy. The head quarters of the French have been removed from Lodi to Milan. It appears that the directory and the two Cisalpine councils have left Milan for Turin. General Hohenzollern has taken possession of Remona, where he found some pieces of cannon, ammunition waggons, &c. The Austrian hussars have already advanced as far as Pizzighitone, Lodi, Iseo and Bergamo.

VENICE, April 19.

We learn by this day's gazette, that the Mirandole has been taken by a detachment of general Klenau's army, and that several thousand peasants have joined the Austrians in the Cisalpine republic. All the country of Ferrara has risen against the French, and the Austrians are taking an immense booty all along the Po.

PARIS, May 3.

Extract of a letter from the French head quarters at Lodi, dated April 17.

"A report is spread that our retreat is concerted with the Austrians for the purpose of giving up the Cisalpine republic to the emperor. Some of the public functionaries at Milan began to pack up their baggage, but the French ambassador prevented their pusillanimous flight, by threatening to shoot those who quitted their posts.

"I have this moment learned that our head quarters are moved from Lodi to Crema.

"We evacuated Cremona yesterday morning."

LONDON, May 11.

French papers just received admit Moreau has experienced a defeat in Italy. The French have already, it is said, lost 35,000 men this campaign.

The Austrians found in Ferrara, 18,000 muskets, 4 millions money, 8 waggons of uniforms, and a convoy of military stores; also took 10 armed vessels. Salo and Brescia are taken.

The last levy of 200,000 men in France produced only 40,000.

BASSETTERE, (St. Kitts) June 7.

On Wednesday morning arrived from a cruise, the United States brig Norfolk, captain Bainbridge, with the loss of both her top-masts, in chase of a large French three masted privateer schooner of 16 guns and full of men. As soon as they saw the accident of the Norfolk, they bore down upon her with a view to take advantage of her situation, but finding the wreck had been cut away, and the Norfolk endeavouring to bring them to action, they thought proper to make sail and stand for Guadaloupe.

July 11.

The following letter we have copied from a St. Vincent paper of the 11th instant:

CARINA, at sea, April 28, '99.

Sir, Having fallen in with a packet from Ralmouth, I take the opportunity by her to acquaint you, that the Brest fleet put to sea on Friday last, and went through the passage du Raz, with a strong northerly wind.

The fleet, under the command of the right hon. lord Bridport, is in quest of the enemy.—It is supposed they are destined for Ireland.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

JAMES SAUMAREZ.

To any officer, commanding one of his majesty's ships.

NASSAU, (N.P.) June 4.

By the Mentor privateer, captain Gibson, just now arrived from a cruise to windward, intelligence is brought of general Maitland having completely effected the object of his mission of St. Domingo. It is understood, that free admission into all the ports of St. Domingo is allowed to the British and American traders; and that the Mole is to be garrisoned by British troops.

General Maitland had been at Cape Francois and the Mole; and from the latter proceeded for Gonaive, taking under his convoy a vessel laden with military stores sent by general Touffain to that place, for its defence against an expected attack of Rigaud.

Immediately before the American vessel from which captain Gibson obtained this intelligence, sailed from the Mole, an express arrived there from Jeremie, in consequence of which a salute from the batteries was fired. This induced the Americans to suppose that the express brought advice of Rigaud's having relinquished all opposition to the new arrangements.

PORTLAND, June 27.

Monday arrived schooner Swallow, captain White, 24 days from Dominique. On his passage home, June 10, lat. 38, long. 70, 30, discovered a wreck, which appeared to have been a schooner of about 130 tons—part of her masts and rigging lay to windward, her quarter deck entirely gone; as she was on her beam ends he could only discover "George-town" on her stern, and that she had spruce butts to the wind-lasts.

Extract of a letter from a young gentleman in Hollowell, to his friend in Boston, dated June 15.

We have had the greatest freshes known here these ten years. It was nine feet above high water mark; the damage it has done up the river is incalculable; as the chief part of the logs, timber, &c. haled out last winter, together with several mills, mill-dams, &c. have been destroyed.

One mill on said river, is supposed to have lost 2000 logs, together with part of their mill and dam.

"The whole loss may be estimated at 30,000 dollars on the river Kennebeck."

On the 13th instant, in and near Portsmouth, much damage was done by lightning. A ship of colonel Ladd's was considerably injured—at Rochester, 4 men were killed—at New Market a barn was nearly destroyed—at Rye, a new house was struck, and the people working in it.

NEW-YORK, July 2.

Mr. Millis, who arrived here last evening in the sloop Cato, five days from Bermuda, informs us of the DEATH OF TOUSSAINT. The news was received there in a schooner from Montego Bay, and was told to Mr. Millis by the governor of Bermuda, who, though he had not the particulars, believed it. It is conjectured his death was not natural.

July 4.

A letter received in town yesterday by a respectable mercantile house, from Philadelphia, has the following painful sentence:

"The Fever is, we are sorry to say, now actually here, and has made some considerable progress."

Yesterday arrived the frigate Constellation, from Norfolk; captain Truxton; she anchored at the watering place. We understand captain Truxton is gone to Amboy, and the ship will not come up to town.

July 5.

POSTSCRIPT.

Captain Fox, of the British armed schooner Hound, arrived here yesterday afternoon, in 14 days from Barbadoes; obligingly favoured us with the following very important information:

"Penelope packet arrived at Barbadoes, 20th June, in 27 days from Falmouth, gives accounts, that the Austrians, assisted by the Swiss, have driven the French out of Switzerland, with great slaughter. In Italy, the first blow the Russians struck, was the capture of Milan, and the French were retreating from that country with the utmost rapidity. Their armies were filled with terror when opposed to the Russians.

"Report says that a counter revolution had been effected in France. No account had been received in England of lord Bridport's falling in with the French Squadron from Brest, that left that port the 26th of April—the last said, that he was in close pursuit of them, and when last seen by our frigates, they were standing to the southward."

ALBANY, June 8.

THE HESSIAN FLY.

Extract of a letter to the printers of the Albany gazette.

"I have noticed in some of your late papers, that the Hessian fly has again made its appearance in the United States; and that not only in Virginia, and some other of the southern states, but also in some parts of this state, melancholy proofs of the ravages of this devouring insect have been discovered; I have myself also observed that in the county of Washington, in which I reside, the fly is again desolating our fields of wheat.

"I hope so potent an enemy will not be treated with unconcern and neglect, by the friends of agriculture, but that they will unite their experience with their energy to repel and counteract his insidious and baneful influence, and if possible arrest his progress in its first onset.

"The result of my observations respecting the Hessian fly, when he before ravaged this country, and the plan adopted for destroying him which appeared to me the most effectual, I here subjoin, with a request you will give the same a place in your paper.

"The fly deposits its eggs in the new wheat soon after its springing up, in autumn, and before there are any severe frosts—propagates in the spring—remains in a torpid state till some time after reaping—is invariably found in the first or second joint of the stalk, and takes wing in the course of August.—Cut your wheat high, remove it immediately from off the land, and without delay burn the stubble.—This destroys the insect while in its torpid state, and if the burning be effectual, cuts off the Hessian fly root and branch in one season.

"I think I may safely pledge myself to you, that if this plan of cutting the wheat and burning the stubble is universally adopted, we shall hear no more of the Hessian fly; and that in addition thereto, we shall have larger crops of grain, as the burning greatly enriches the land, and has nearly the same effect as a coat of good manure."

PHILADELPHIA, July 3.

Extract of a letter from Hamburg, dated April 27, 1799, to a merchant in Philadelphia.

"The reports that exist of the emperor of Russia having laid a temporary embargo upon a few of our ships in his ports, causes little or no sensation, as matters will easily be explained to general satisfaction, and we can fairly assert that we consider our situation at present such as not to leave the smallest apprehension of our preserving that continued tranquillity which, thank God, we have hitherto to happily enjoyed, and which it is obviously the interest of the different belligerent powers to respect and even to support—of this we deem the past the best of all possible proofs, in spite of the unfounded reports which those envious of the advantageous situation of Hamburg and its consequence in prosperity, are ever ready to circulate."

July 4.

Extract of a letter from a clergyman in Charleston, South Carolina, to his friend in this city.

"As it is our duty to communicate any information which may be of advantage to mankind, I shall here take the liberty of mentioning to you, the excellent effects I have observed, in this city, from the SENECA SNAKE ROOT, in cases of the yellow fever—from which awful visitation, may a kind Providence preserve you this season!

"I first tried the Seneca snake root in my own family, and then among my friends—and in 12 or 13 cases, where it was regularly used, the persons all recovered. It was in those cases given in the same manner as for the pleurisy, and may be administered in the usual form, at the same time the calomel and jalap are given. It facilitates the evacuation of the bowels, at the same time that it has a powerful effect in removing the inflammation which exists in the first stage of the disease; and from its antiseptic and sudorific qualities, is of great use in the latter stages. It does not supercede bleeding in the first stage, where the subject is of a plethoric habit, or the inflammation great; but frequently renders the repetition of bleeding unnecessary. I cannot help hoping that, by the blessing of God, the free use of the Seneca snake root may be a means of preserving many lives in the northern states, where the rich blood and general health of the inhabitants seem to expose them in a high degree to the rage of this fatal disorder.

BALTIMORE, July 6. NEW S.

Yesterday the schooner America arrived at the fort, in 7 days from St. Thomas. In the America came passenger, captain Watts of this port, who gives us the following important intelligence!

That a cutter had arrived at Guadaloupe in 25 days passage from Cadiz, with dispatches to the administration, containing intelligence that the French fleet from Brest had arrived off Cadiz, where they fell in with admiral Jarvis; that an engagement took place, in which the English were severely beaten; that they lost SEVEN SAIL OF THE LINE, besides frigates. Captain Watts could not obtain particulars—he communicates to us the information just as he received it, from a supercargo of Mr. Jacob Myers, of Norfolk, who was at Guadaloupe when the express arrived, and brought the news to St. Thomas. [American]

[There appears to be nothing to invalidate the above news, so much as its coming through the channel of Guadaloupe. Our intelligence before from Cadiz was to about the 25th of May, when the French and British fleets were said to be off that port.] [Fed. Gaz.]

Annapolis, July 11.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Philadelphia, to his friend in Baltimore, dated July 3d, 1799.

"Respecting the alarm we have had here of the yellow fever, I have now to assure you, from the best authority, that no such exists here at present. A few sudden deaths taking place, and the apprehensions of the people being to great, soon spread the alarm. Should any thing novel take place on this particular, you may depend on the earliest intelligence."

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in St. Thomas's, dated 25th June, to a gentleman in Baltimore.

"There is no news here of late date, but there is a report of the French and Spanish fleets consisting of 27 sail of line of battle ships being out bound for Ireland, and of their having chased lord Bridport with 9 sail; I hope the latter may fall in with them with only 20 sail; I think they will give a good account of them. Sir Sydney Smith has gone to Algiers on a secret expedition. The affairs of the continent wear a different aspect to what they did some time ago. The Austrians have beat the French in all directions; on the one side they have forced them to repass the Rhine, and on the side of Italy have driven them back to Rome; the Swis have risen and expelled them from the cantons, and in short, to give you a striking idea of their distresses, the directory have declared the republic in danger."

At a dinner prepared by Mr. Wharfe, for the celebration of American independence, where his excellency the Governor presided, the following toasts were drank:

1. The day we celebrate.
 2. The constitution of the United States.
 3. The senate and house of representatives. May they continue to act with dignity, energy, and patriotism.
 4. The president of the United States. May he remain wise in his councils, and uniform in his decisions.
 5. General George Washington. Long may he be preferred as a bulwark to defend the rights of his darling Columbia.
 6. The American army. May they add fresh laurels to the American wreath.
 7. The American navy. May each ship be a Constellation in the American galaxy; every commander emulate a Truxton; and all their enemies meet the fate of an Insurgent.
 8. The voice that spoke our independence; the arm that maintained it; and the memory of those heroes who died in its defence.
 9. The people of America. May they never permit the glare of pretended patriotism to impair their confidence in the government of their choice.
 10. The State of Maryland. May she preserve her importance by a proper exercise of Federal measures.
 11. The fair daughters of Columbia. May their charms never afford a banquet to an enemy of their country.
 12. A restoration of honourable peace to all the world.
 13. A speedy grave to French rapacity.
 14. May our harmony never be disturbed by factious intrigue, or foreign influence.
 15. The contemplated embassy to France. May it terminate to the interest and honour of our country; but in no degree relax our preparations of defence.
 16. May party cease; unanimity prevail; and every citizen rally round the standard of genuine liberty.
- When his excellency the Governor and the hon. Robert G. Harper retired, the company drank as volunteer toasts.
- The governor of Maryland.

By the PRESIDENT of the UNITED STATES of AMERICA,
A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by an act of the congress of the United States, passed the 9th day of February last, entitled, "An act further to suspend the commercial intercourse between the United States and France, and the dependencies thereof," it is provided, That at any time after the passing of this act, it shall be lawful for the president of the United States, if he shall deem it expedient, and consistent with the interests of the United States, by his order, to remit and discontinue for the time being, the restraints and prohibitions by the said act imposed, either with respect to the French republic, or to any island, port or place belonging to the said republic, with which a commercial intercourse may safely be renewed; and also to revoke such order, whenever in his opinion the interests of the United States shall require; and he is authorized to make proclamation thereof accordingly.

And whereas the arrangements which have been made at St. Domingo for the safety of the commerce of the United States, and for the admission of American vessels into certain ports of that island, do in my opinion render it expedient, and for the interest of the United States, to renew a commercial intercourse with such port;

Therefore, I JOHN ADAMS, PRESIDENT of the UNITED STATES, by virtue of the powers vested in me by the above recited act, do hereby remit and discontinue the restraints and prohibitions therein contained, within the limits and under the regulations here following, to wit:

1. It shall be lawful for vessels which have departed or may depart from the United States, to enter the ports of Cape Francois and Port Republicain, formerly called Port-au-Prince, in the said island of St. Domingo, on and after the first day of August next.

2. No vessel shall be cleared for any other port in St. Domingo, than Cape-Francois and Port Republicain.

3. It shall be lawful for vessels which shall enter the said ports of Cape Francois and Port Republicain, after the thirty-first day of July next, to depart from thence to any other port in said island between Monte Christi on the north, and Petit-Goave on the west; provided it be done with the consent of the government of St. Domingo, and pursuant to certificates or passports expressing such consent, signed by the consular general of the United States, or consular residing at the port of departure.

4. All vessels sailing in contravention of these regulations, will be out of the protection of the United States, and be moreover liable to capture, seizure, and confiscation.

Given under my hand and the seal of the United States, at Philadelphia, the twenty-sixth day of June, in the year of our L. S. Lord seventeen hundred and ninety-nine, and of the independence of the said States, the twenty-third.

JOHN ADAMS.
By the president,
TIMOTHY PICKERING, Secretary of State.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
June 26, 1799.
(CIRCULAR.)
To the COLLECTORS of the CUSTOMS.

SIR,
I HEREWITH transmit a copy of a proclamation which has been issued by the president of the United States, remitting and discontinuing, from and after the 31st day of July next, in respect to a part of the island of St. Domingo, the prohibitions and restraints imposed by an act of congress passed on the 9th of February, 1799, entitled, "An act further to suspend the commercial intercourse between the United States and France and the dependencies thereof."

The district with which commerce is permitted by this proclamation, comprehends the ports in the northern and western parts of the island, between Monte Christi and Petit-Goave. In respect to all other ports in the island, the restrictions imposed by the act of congress, remain in force.

The ports of Cape Francois and Port Republicain, formerly called Port-au-Prince, are established by the government of St. Domingo, as the only ports of entry: for these two ports clearances may be granted immediately; although they cannot be entered until the first of August. Vessels which may attempt to enter other ports, without special permission, as hereafter mentioned, will be liable to seizure and confiscation.

It is expected that permission will be granted to vessels which shall have made report at one of the ports of entry before mentioned, to proceed for purposes of commerce, to any other ports within the district aforesaid. When the consent of the government of St. Domingo, can be obtained for this purpose, the American vessels will be furnished with certificates or passports expressing such permission, which will be signed by the consular general of the United States, or the consular residing at the port of entry; the certificates or passports aforesaid, are to be exhibited to the collectors of the customs, on the arrival of any vessel in the United States, except from one of the ports of entry above mentioned.

Vessels which may proceed from one of the ports of entry to any of the out ports within the district above mentioned, without passports expressing the permission of the government of St. Domingo, will be liable to seizure and confiscation.

American vessels which may obtain cargoes in the island of St. Domingo, are to proceed therewith directly to some port in the United States; if such vessel shall be detained or captured, while proceeding on a voyage elsewhere, they will not be entitled to claim the interposition of the American government in their favour.

The masters and owners of American vessels are to be cautioned, as they would avoid the risk of seizure in St. Domingo, not to permit any Frenchmen to embark on board their vessels for any part of the said island, without special passports from the secretary of State.

No persons except citizens of the United States, are to be brought from the island of St. Domingo; unless they produce the written passports of the general in chief of the army of St. Domingo, authorizing their departure, and also separate passports from the consular general of the United States.

(Signed)
OLIVER WOLCOTT.

"DIED, on Sunday morning, the 7th instant, Mrs. FRANCES BREWER, relict of Mr. Nicholas BREWER, jun. of this city, after a long and painful illness; the fortitude, patience and resignation, which she displayed during her indisposition plainly evinced that she had a full confidence in the enjoyment of the blessings of Heaven.

"Farewell departed friend—adieu!
Whose virtues many, but whose faults were few,
Whose sympathetic heart could never hear
Misfortune's tale, without a tear;
Away to Heaven and join the happy few,
Go and receive what is thy due,
Thy Maker's praise, a heav'nly crown,
The joys of Heaven are all thine own;
Thy friends may mourn, but why complain,
Their loss alas! is thy eternal gain."

THE object of the bill is to obtain to the complainant the legal title in 50 acres of land, lying in Frederick county, part of the resurvey on Stripe's Purchase, bought by him of Jacob Stripe, deceased, the ancestor of the defendants; the bill states, that David Stripe, one of the defendants, is the eldest son, and would be sole heir of the said Jacob Stripe, except for the operation of the act to direct descents; the bill further states, that all the defendants reside out of the state; it is thereupon, on motion of the complainant, ordered and adjudged, that he cause a copy of this order to be inserted at least once in each of three successive weeks in the Maryland Gazette before the 2d day of August next, to the intent that the defendants may have notice of the present application, and the substance and object of the bill, and may be warned to appear in this court in person, or by solicitor, on or before the 2d day of December next, to shew cause, if any they have, why a decree should not pass as prayed.

NOTICE is hereby given, that I intend to make application to the next Anne-Arundel county court for a commission to mark and bound my part of a tract or parcel of land called LYNCH'S PURCHASE, lying and being in the county aforesaid, agreeable to an act of assembly, passed in the year 1786, entitled, An act for marking and bounding of lands.

The subscribers being appointed trustees for the purpose of selling and conveying so much of the real estate of the late deceased major-general SMALLWOOD as may be necessary to discharge his debts, will OFFER FOR SALE, on Monday the 15th of July next, if fair, if not the first fair day thereafter,

SUNDRY LANDS belonging to the estate of the said deceased, consisting of eight or ten thousand acres, lying in Charles county, and situate chiefly on the Mattawoman creek, within a very few miles of the Patowmack river; as those lands are composed of a variety of tracts or parcels of different contents and descriptions, it is not in the power of the trustees particularly to designate them in an advertisement, but it can be said with certainty that they are well adapted to planting and farming, abound in good water, and are well stocked with timber and wood, besides a number of them having the advantage of fisheries equal to any in Maryland. The sale will commence at a place on the Mattawoman creek, well known by the name of Brawn's Mill, at 12 o'clock, on the day above mentioned, and will be continued from day to day, until it is completed, at such places as may then be made known by the trustees. Purchasers will be required to give bond, with good security, to the trustees for the amount of the purchase money, the one half thereof payable, with interest, within one year, and the residue, with interest, within two years from the time of sale. Possession will be given on the first of January next, and deeds executed to the respective purchasers when the whole of the money is paid, and not before. The said lands will be sold in such tracts or parcels as may appear to the trustees best to answer the design of the sale, and every information respecting them given at the time of sale that may come to the knowledge of the trustees.

RAN away from the subscriber, living near the head of Severn, in Anne-Arundel county, on Thursday the 27th of June last, a negro man of the name of TOM, generally called captain TOM, being accustomed to sail in a wood flat for the subscriber to Annapolis; he is about five feet five or six inches high, stout made, has large cheek bones, and when he laughs shows his teeth, and generally has a large chew of tobacco between his under lip and teeth. Said fellow is about 25 years old, and has been accustomed to every kind of plantation work, and is an excellent sawyer at the whip-law; he is rather slow in speech, unless intoxicated, and if spoke to sharp, has a down look; he had on his usual working cloaths when he went off, and took with him an old red casimer jacket, and white shirt with ruffles on it; and may have other cloaths which is unknown to the subscriber, as he has several relations in the neighbourhood. I do suspect he will make for Baltimore-town, and endeavour to get off by water. I will give 15 dollars if he is apprehended in Baltimore-town and confined in goal, and if brought home to me twenty dollars, and if out of the state thirty dollars, and all reasonable expenses for bringing him home, agreeable to law.

Five Pounds Reward

FOR apprehending and bringing home negro TOM, who has assumed the name of TOM TILLARD, he is about five feet one or two inches high, wrinkled in the forehead, very dark complexion, wears his hair or wool in whiskers, flammers very much, and is remarkably bow-legged; he went off some time in May last, under pretence of going to see his wife, who belongs to Mr. Thomas R. Hodges, in Prince-George's county, near Upper-Marlborough, and may probably be lurking about that gentleman's plantation; he has a number of acquaintances in that neighbourhood, and there is reason to suspect he may be concealed in some of the quarters of R. Sprigg, Esquire. I will give three pounds for lodging him in goal, so that I get him again, or the above reward, including what the law allows, for bringing him home to

JOHNSON M. O'REILLY, near Annapolis.

I will handsomely reward any person who will convict any one of harbouring or employing said fellow, as it is my determination to put the law rigorously into execution against such offender.

To be SOLD for CASH, or on long credit,

A FAMILY of SLAVES, consisting of a man, his wife, and their eight children, four boys and four girls, the eldest seventeen years of age, the youngest twelve months; the man is honest and sober, a good gardener, a trusty market man, and handy at all work; the woman is an excellent plain cook, honest and sober; the experience of so large a family in town, and the reluctance of the parents to have their children sold, or even separated from them, is the only reason of their being offered for sale. To a good master in the country who would keep the family together, and manumit the female children at twenty-eight years of age, they will be disposed of on easy terms.

Price, One Dollar and an Half,

The LAWS

OF

Passed November Session, 1798.

RAN away, on Tuesday the fourth instant, from the estate of WILLIAM SANDERS, on South river, a negro man named DENBY, a stout black fellow, about 25 years of age, 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, has a quick pert way of speaking; took with him sundry clothing, among them a coat and breeches of dark striped elastic cloth, a white muslin waist coat, and an old pair of corded breeches, a new mill round hat, bounds, and a pair of black shoes; it is expected he has made for Baltimore. A reward of TEN DOLLARS will be paid for securing him in the goal of Baltimore, so that he be had again, or FIVE POUNDS if taken a greater distance.

WILLIAM BROGDEN.

Sept. 10, 1798.

RAN away from the subscriber, living in Anne-Arundel county, on the Head of South river, negro NELL, a bright mulatto slave, about thirty-eight years of age, of a thin visage, about five feet four inches high, with long bushy hair, has been in common used to house work, she is a very good spinner, and in fact, understands how to do any thing about a house; her cloaths are uncertain, as she took with her more than one suit; she has been seen in Annapolis, and it is not unlikely but that she may now be there. I will pay EIGHT DOLLARS to any person that will bring her home, or secure her so that I get her again.
